25 YEAR
RE-REVIEW

61-92

5 January 1961

Major General Wilton B. Persons
The Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Jerry:

As you know, it has been customary for the past several years for the President to hold a White House luncheon on behalf of the Crusade for Freedom, the fund raising organization for Radio Free Europe. Usually 30 to 40 distinguished leaders of American business and industry attend, together with the Secretary of State, myself, and the Crusade chairman. The President has always been good enough to say a few words in support of Radio Free Europe at the luncheon, and his endorsement has invariably been instrumental in kicking off the Crusade's yearly fund-raising drive to a good start.

I am hopeful that it will be possible for the President to hold a meeting for the Crusade between now and January 20. Because of the President's busy schedule, I believe a short, informal gathering of say, 25 people would be more in order this year. A suggested guest list is attached.

I have cleared this with the Department of State who concur in the idea.

I cannot emphasize too strongly how much the President's continued support of Radio Free Europe has meant to its American sponsors and to its listeners in Eastern Europe.

Would you be good enough to let me know whether this will be possible this year, and if so, when.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles
Director

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Deputy Director (Plans)

SUBJECT: Radio Free Europe - Crusade for Freedom

1. This memorandum suggests action by the DCI. Such requested action is contained in paragraph 4.

2. In accordance with your request we have drafted the attached letter for you to send to General Persons requesting that President Eisenhower meet with a small group of Crusade contributors in order to get their annual fund raising campaign off to a good start.

3. It has been cleared with the Department of State.

4. We recommend that this letter be sent to General Persons as soon as possible, as time is growing short.
